

ABOUT THE BOOK

Mr. Aboagye finally finds the courage to tell his son Joe about his intent of getting married. Though unhappy, Joe returns to school to meet his lovely girlfriend, Portia, who calms him and helps him understand his father's need to get remarried. Priscilla, Mr. Aboagye's bride-to-be, finds herself in an entanglement with Mr. Aboagye and her ex, Felix., who plots several schemes to get back at her for leaving him.

Priscilla upon seeing her step-son develops a deadly attraction for him and devises schemes to have him all to herself.

Mr. Aboagye gets gruesomely murdered the very day Joe graduated from school.

Who is behind the murder of Mr. Aboagye? Read My Father's Wife and enjoy the twists and turns in the story.

Join our book club to share your views. Text us on the number below to be added to our book club:

+233 (0) 504 503 905

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Desmond Akwafo Apronti is a young and enthusiastic writer who has a strong sense of creativity in crafting stories that portray human life and values. It is with this creativity that this novel was birthed. Desmond hails from Tamatoku - Ada in the Greater Accra Region.

ISBN: 978-9988-3-2240-3

9 789988 322403

MY FATHER'S WIFE
D. A. APRONTI

A NOVEL BY
DESMOND AKWAFO APRONTI